BULIMBA Qld 4171

Dear Mr Thompson,

I write on behalf of the Chief Commissioner to acknowledge your recent correspondence regarding the alleged complicity of Justice Osborn and others in proceedings before the Supreme Court.

The Victorian Attorney-General has provided for a judicial complaints system to investigate serious allegations against sitting judicial officers. An investigating committee may be appointed if the Attorney-General is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for the conduct of an investigation that could amount to proved misbehaviour or incapacity on the part of a judicial officer holder.

Having considered the nature of your allegations, I consider that they fall within the investigative jurisdiction of the Attorney-General. I therefore recommend that you address your concerns in this matter to the Attorney-General Victoria at Level 3, 1 Treasury Place, East Melbourne Vic 3002.

Yours sincerely,

Alan Byrnes
Superintendent
Chief of Staff to the
CHIEF COMMISSIONER
