Dear Mr Thompson

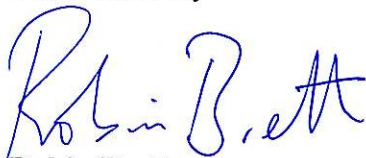

Complaint regarding the Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission

I refer to your complaint about the Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission (IBAC) made by email to the Victorian Inspectorate (VI) and received on 26 July 2013. Your complaint was that the IBAC refused to investigate allegations you made about the conduct of Justice Robert Osborn.

The IBAC Act 2011 empowers the IBAC to receive written complaints from persons in relation to alleged corrupt conduct. Upon receiving a complaint, the IBAC must either dismiss, investigate or refer the complaint and may notify the complainant of that action.

I understand that you had lodged your complaint with the IBAC and wanted the allegations that you raised in relation to Justice Osborn to be investigated. The IBAC's decision in this case was to dismiss your complaint. The material supplied by you to the VI did not disclose anything to indicate that the IBAC's decision was not a proper decision for it to make. Accordingly, the VI will take no further action in respect of your complaint.

Yours sincerely

Robin Brett
Inspector
